

Please do not relax the media ownership rules which would allow giant corporations to own and control our various media. Diversity is important to our American way of life and this will disappear with big corporations owning all media outlets.